

Privacy Policy

At Yavapai Financial Planning, LLC, we respect the personal financial privacy of all our clients and prospective clients, past and present. We realize you have entrusted us with personal financial information, and it is important to us that all employees and clients of our firm know our policy concerning what we do with that information.

We collect personal financial information about our clients from the following sources:

- Information our clients provide to us to complete their financial plan or investment recommendation;
- Information our clients provide to us in agreements, account applications, and other documents completed in connection with the opening and maintenance of their accounts;
- Information our clients provide to us orally; and
- Information we may receive from third parties, such as custodians, about client transactions.

We do not disclose nonpublic personal financial information about our clients to anyone, except in the following circumstances:

- When required to provide services our clients have requested;
- When our clients have specifically authorized us to do so;
- When required during the course of a firm assessment (i.e., independent audit); or
- When permitted or required by law (i.e., periodic regulatory examination).

Within our company, we restrict access to client information to the employees who need to know that information. To ensure security and confidentiality, we maintain physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards to protect the privacy of our clients.

All personnel and our service providers understand that everything handled in our office is confidential and they are instructed to not discuss client information situation with someone else that may request information about an account unless they are specifically authorized in writing by the client to do so. This includes, for example, providing information about a spouse's IRA account; children about parents' accounts, etc.

We will notify you annually of our privacy policy and at any time, in advance, if our policy is expected to change.